

To ensure proper advancement and implementation of the HDTV format as a standard; the FCC should rule in favor of the end customer and tax payer. If voom survives it creates healthy competition and the consumer wins as well as HDTV. Please keep my address and information confidential.